About FDPPI

FDPPI stands at the forefront of promoting privacy and data protection in India. As a not for-profit organization led by industry experts, we have consistently worked to cultivate a robust culture of privacy through certification programs, skill development initiatives, implementation frameworks (such as the Data Governance and Protection Standard of India - DGPSI, and practical tools for assessment including MyDTS and DPDPA Insurability Assessment.

About IDPS

The Indian Data Protection Summit, the flagship event of FDPPI, has become a pre-eminent platform for dialogue and knowledge exchange, attracting thought leaders, policymakers, and industry professionals from around the world. Past editions have seen active participation from over 150–200 executive-level attendees, including CIOs, CISOs, and CxOs in each location, making it an unparalleled opportunity to connect with key decision-makers. IDPS 2025, the sixth edition, will bring its impact to multiple cities across India.
